For Immediate Release:

Lashly & Baer, P.C. Names Andrew R. Bramman Shareholder

Tuesday, February 10, 2026 (St. Louis, Missouri) – Lashly & Baer, P.C. is pleased to announce that attorney Andrew R. Bramman has been named a Shareholder of the firm.

Mr. Bramman has been with the firm since 2022 and concentrates his practice on the representation of local government bodies and public institutions. He represents the communities of Lakeshire, Normandy, Oakland, and the Village of Pasadena Park, all in Missouri. Andy also serves on the Board of Directors of Kids In The Middle. He holds a J.D. from Saint Louis University School of Law and an M.A. in Philosophy from the University of Missouri–St. Louis.

“Andrew brings great experience in Missouri municipal law and has helped expand the firm’s clients in the St. Louis region,” said Lisa O. Stump, President of Lashly & Baer. “Andrew is a skilled attorney with a passion for public service,” said Brian J. Malone, Shareholder and Chairman of the firm’s Government and Education Practice Group. “We are excited to have him as a Shareholder of our firm.”

For over 55 years, Lashly & Baer has provided sound legal counsel to public sector institutions. During this time, we have earned a solid reputation for prompt legal services at a reasonable cost. We believe that providing smart legal advice is vital, but providing this help in a timely manner is just as critical to meeting our clients’ legal needs. Our attorneys are experienced and trial-tested in the statutes and regulations affecting public agencies. We represent a variety of clients, including multiple cities, major school districts, a multi-state compact agency, libraries, and a rate review agency. Lashly & Baer has the experience to handle drafting ordinances, resolutions, contracts, and leases, and to address public bidding, tax increases, bond issues, employment and labor matters, real estate, condemnation, intergovernmental relations, and other legal issues that government and public agencies regularly face.
