Mark H. Levison's practice focuses on complex commercial litigation, governmental relations and administrative affairs, including economic development incentives.

As a trial lawyer, he has helped set legal precedent in several distinct areas. Mr. Levison is a recognized leader of the organized bar.

Mr. Levison was a member of the Missouri Legislature's Subcommittee on the Privatization of Government Services. In Washington D.C., Mr. Levison served on the staffs of the United States Senate and the U.S. House of Representatives. Mark is a community leader who has served on many governmental and charitable boards.

Mr. Levison earned his J.D. from Washington University School of Law. He was a nationally syndicated columnist and is a CLE speaker on topics ranging from Ethics & Professionalism to Real Estate. In 2023, Levison received the ICON award from Missouri Lawyers Media for his distinguished service to the practice of law in St. Louis. He also received the 2021 Diversity & Inclusion award by Missouri Lawyers Media for his service to the St. Louis community. In 2020, Small Business Monthly in St. Louis named Mr. Levison as a Most Admired Business Leader in St. Louis for his charitable contributions to the community. In 2013 and again in 2025, the publication also named Levison one of the Top 100 St. Louisians to Know to Succeed in Business.
