Michael D. Regan is an experienced transactional attorney having handled business transactions for more than 25 years. He has engaged in business law with an emphasis on real estate, commercial lending, mergers and acquisitions, general corporate and shareholder matters, and property tax law.

Mr. Regan has dealt with asset acquisitions, stock sales and corporate acquisitions involving the purchase of multiple business operations. He represents lending institutions in connection with documentation of loans of all types.

He played a significant role in the acquisition of land for the St. Louis area mass transit system. In addition to handling mergers, acquisitions and corporate reorganizations, he counsels business and individual clients on business issues such as employment and non-compete matters, corporate governance and corporate finance matters. He also represents nonprofit organizations in obtaining charitable exemptions from property tax, and represents property owners challenging their property tax assessments.

Michael earned his J.D. from the University of Missouri-Columbia School of Law.
